PRESS RELEASE

PHOENIX GLOBAL SERVICES SA STEPS UP ITS DEVELOPMENT BY STRENGTHENING THE "PORTFOLIO MANAGERS" SEGMENT, WITH THE NOMINATION OF MARIE-NOËLLE LA NGOC

Geneva, January 11, 2021 - Phoenix Global Services SA, a consulting firm specializing in Swiss banking and financial law, Ethics and Compliance, is pleased to announce the nomination of a new partner, namely Marie-Noelle La Ngoc. Marie-Noelle is responsible for the development of the "Portfolio Managers" segment. This new arrival confirms Phoenix's willingness to offer support on all the complex regulatory issues, raised by the entry into force of FINIA and FINSA (Financial Institutions and Financial Services Acts), affecting financial players.

Marie-Noelle La Ngoc

Marie-Noelle worked as a financial analyst with various companies for more than 10 years, before specializing in the development and support of the "Portfolio Managers" segment with renowned institutions in Geneva, such as Pictet, Mirabaud, BlueOrchard and BCGE for 20 years. She provides operational and compliance support to her clients.

Marie-Noelle graduated from HEC Lausanne (1984) with a Master's degree in Economics and Business Management and holds a SAQ-CWM certification (2020).

The "Portfolio Managers" segment

Under the recent regulatory upheavels affecting Swiss financial institutions, Phoenix has developed an infrastructure dedicated to Portfolio Managers, providing them with legal advice, operational and compliance support, with the possibility of outsourcing and corporate governance support. It is also involved in its clients' mergers and acquisitions operations, asset transfers and business succession.

About Phoenix Global Services SA

Phoenix Global Services SA, founded by a lawyer and a Senior Compliance Officer, is one of the oldest firms recognized in the market since 2009, for its excellence in banking and financial law, Ethics and Compliance. Phoenix works with Swiss and international private clients, as well as trust companies, trustees, Family offices, client advisors, portfolio managers, managers of collective assets, securities firms and banks.

Its founders, Flora Karasso Rupf and Licia Napoleon Bonaparte, are delighted with this nomination, which is part of the firm's strategy to become the preferred partner of financial intermediaries in Compliance and banking and financial law.
